WORLD NEWS BY CABLE

(Associated Press Cable.)

SEVASTOPOL TORPEDOED.

Tokio, Dec. 14.—The Russian battleship Sevastopol is reported to have been torpedoed after many attempts.

The bombardment from 203-meter hill has destroyed the store-houses on Tiger's Tail and three commercial ships.

Observations from the hill show that there is not a single ship afloat in the harbor. All that can be seen above water are turrets, masts and funnels.

The streets of Port Arthur are deserted, nobody is patrolling them and the houses are burned or shattered.

The present sea power of Russia in the Orient having been destroyed, with the exception of two or three cruisers in winter quarters at Vladivostok, the Japanese fleet, with the exception of a flotilla of destroyers on patrol duty, will go into dock.

The Japanese troops are now advancing from the shores of Pigeon Bay against the western forts.

JAPANESE REPORT.

Washington, Dec. 14, 1904. To Japanese Consul, Honolulu.

The Commander of the Naval Artillery at Port Arthur reports that the bombardment on the 13th inst. was principally aimed at the arsenal and the torpedo depot at Tiger's Tail and the steamboats in the vicinity. The torpedo depot was set ablaze for one hour and three ships were destroyed and one sunk, besides the buildings were greatly damaged. The indirect bombardment upon the "Sevastopol" which is staying outside the harbor, was suspended owing to bad weather which prevented observation.

Admiral Togo reports that torpedo boat flotillas attacked the "Sevastopol" twice in the night of the 12th and thrice in the night of the 13th but the result is uncertain. Each time they met the enemy's fierce fire and one torpedo boat was disabled but towed back, while three others received one shot each. Our total casualties in this engagement were only three men wounded.

HIOKO.

RUSSIAN REFORMS.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 14.—The Government intend to make extensive reforms as a result of the agitation now going on. A representative consultative body may be granted and more freedom given to the press.

DISPUTE THROWN OUT.

Denver, Col., Dec. 14.—The Supreme Court has thrown out the disputed precinct case. Similar action on the other cases would give the Legislature to the Republicans.

MRS. CHADWICK IN JAIL.

Cleveland, Dec. 14.—Mrs. Chadwick has been sent to jail in default of $100,000 bail. There are seven indictments against her. She was greeted at the depot on her arrival by an enormous hooting throng. The route to the jail was made almost impassable by a jeering mob.

LEMUEL DAVIS DEAD.

Philadelphia, Dec. 14.—Lemuel Davis is dead.

Lemuel Clark Davis, editor of the Philadelphia Public Ledger, was born near Sandusky, Ohio, September 25, 1835. In 1859 he became editor of the Philadelphia Inquirer and later took charge of the Public Ledger. He married, in 1863, Rebecca Harding, who has written considerable fiction. He is the father of Richard Harding Davis, author and war correspondent and C. Belmont Davis. Mr. Davis was the author of "The Stranded Ship" as well as other literary works.

DECLINES A CABINET.

Madrid, Dec. 14.—Two invitations to form a cabinet have been declined. The situation is difficult.

DIMOND'S BIG OPENING

Extraneous music and a flood of electric brilliancy reflected by countless delightful creations in crystal will mark the opening of W. W. Dimond & Co.'s large store for the usual holiday evening trade on Saturday next at 7:30 o'clock.

Solomon's famous Hawaiian musicians will attend and will play throughout the evening. The entire force of the establishment will be on hand to conduct purchasers through the great array of tempting things, a magnificent selection of suitable Christmas goods, including dinner sets, sterling silverware, tea sets, cutlery, glassware and hundreds of beautiful articles, useful and ornamental. The large arc lights of the store will make the place like daylight. From and including Saturday evening the Dimond gift exhibition will be open every evening up to Christmas. It is usual for this firm to make a great feature of the opening of the holiday season and this year's event will surpass those of previous years.
